

K-Love is the only Christian radio station in the Austin area that provides professional and quality Christian music and information. If a LPFM provider replaces this station, there will be a void in the Austin market for this type of radio programming. Not only that, my daughter who is a teenager, loves listening to the station and that's no small feat when you consider the competition vying for her attention.